

The menu, although large and somewhat intimidating, provides descriptions for each dish, so you know what you are getting yourself into. My personal favorite is the Chicken Fettuccine Alfredo. The thick, white pasta sauce comes out still bubbling hot, and smothers the firm Penne pasta and perfectly-seasoned chicken like the "icing on the cake"